

Hamilton (Paddy) Bell of Cape Town was elected as the second and last Chairman of the OSG, which was renamed the South African Orthopaedic Association in 1952. He was later to become the first Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Stellenbosch