

C.J. (Cyril) Kaplan of Durban. His contributions as wartime medical officer and distinguished private practitioner won him an invitation to deliver the prestigious Hunterian Lecture in 1958. While President, he was initiator of the Lesotho Project which sent orthopaedic teams from round the country on monthly missions to Lesotho.